

Fascinating glimpses into the corners of our past. No need to book - just drop in. Talks are free, but donations welcome.

14th June 2018 1pm

First Ascent of Mount Blanc

Find out more how mountaineers tried to tackle the highest mountain in the Alps.

5th July 2018 at 1pm

Keats in Keswick

Robin Acland talks about Keats in Keswick 200 years ago.

17th July 2018 at 1pm

Women in the Third Reich

A second chance to see. Dr. Anneke Hackenbroich talks about Women in the Third Reich.

2nd August 2018 at 1pm

The Great Gift – how the Lake District fells were protected for the nation after the First World War

Jessica Binns, Visitor Experience & Engagement Manager of the National Trust talks on this act of commemoration.

6th September 2018 at 1pm

What does it mean to be a UNESCO World Heritage Site?

John Scott, Management Plan Coordinator of Hadrian's Wall talks about the role UNESCO sees for this list of special places.

